1. Most of the anti-US propagandists in Poland are former Warsaw officials who have returned from the US in recent years, although there are several self-styled newspapermen who visited the US after World War II with the Warsaw delegation to the United Nations. Since these people returned to Poland without hesitation and voluntarily, it can safely be assumed that they are also doing their work voluntarily. As a matter of fact, almost every one of them sought propaganda work because such jobs are among the best paid in Poland today. It should be added that 85% of these men have never seen more of the US than New York or Washington D C and even observations on these two cities were limited due to the fact that most of the men do not speak English. This, however, does not prevent them from writing their anti-US stories with the air of experts with an intimate knowledge of this country from Maine to Florida, and from New York to Oregon.

Arski, Stefan appears regularly as a radio commentator. He considers himself the most versed expert on US affairs. As a writer he often contributes anti-US articles to the Trybuna Wolnosci, the Communist weekly, published by the Central Committee, and occasionally to other Communist magazines and periodicals.

Artymowska, Zofia is a young Communist newspaper woman who in 1948 received one of the United Nations awards for young journalists. After that Artymowska began specializing in international affairs and now is working for Trybuna Ludu, the Party's daily organ in Warsaw. She occasionally writes for Nowe Drogi, the Party's theoretical and political organ, makes anti-US speeches and covers some international conferences as a reporter for the Communist press in Warsaw.

Barcz, Wojciech is the former editor of Nowe Wiadomosci Polskie published in Frankfurt by the Warsaw military mission in the American Zone of Germany. Since 1950 when the mission had to leave the American Zone, Barcz has been working for the Trybuna Wolnosci. His forte is attacking US policy in Western Germany and writing anti-Vatican articles.

Brodzki, Stanislaw is another hate-America campaigner, known as a Communist long before World War II. He also specializes in international affairs. Brodzki visited the US at the end of 1950 to cover the United Nations General Assembly and stayed here for several weeks. He published his book "Spotkania Amerykanske" (American Meetings) in 1952. He belongs to the Trybuna Ludu editorial staff, occasionally contributing to other Communist papers.

Broniarski, Zygmunt is another Trybuna Ludu "expert" on international affairs and hate-America campaigner. People call him "the analyst" in Warsaw because he evaluates international affairs on the basis of the Soviet press and, as people say, more often uses scissors than a pen.

Bylina, Wojciech is one of the most vicious and zealous US haters in the Warsaw press. He started his anti-US campaign before it was ordered by the Party and in 1946 wrote anti-US articles for Kuznica, Odrodzenie and Nowa Droga. He specializes in writing slander stories about US personalities. He is one of the lowest characters in the Communist newspaper business in Poland. There is something pathological in his hatred toward the US and many people believe that Bylina has some personal reasons for hating US nationals. He pretends to know much about the US but it is easy to detect that all his wisdom comes from the New York Daily Worker.

Gadomski, Romuald is one of the leading figures in the hate-America campaign and founder of the "Wave 49". Two months ago Gadomski was appointed chairman of the Warsaw radio (he had been vice-chairman).

Hofman, Michal also pretends to be an expert on US affairs because he was in the US in 1946, on his way to Bikini atoll, together with professor Bienkowski and Soltan. He later wrote a 75-page pamphlet "The Cloud over Bikini". He is the staff member of the Nowa Droga, the official Party organ, and also of Trybuna Ludu. Occasionally he writes articles on US policy in Europe in other papers and tries his luck as a radio commentator.

Horodyski, Dominik is the co-editor of Dzis i Jutro, organ of the "progressive Catholics". Horodyski is anti-US and anti-British at the same time, because he believes that the US and Great Britain are solely responsible for the present fate of Poland. Horodyski takes part in all anti-US demonstrations and conducts his private campaign against the US, advising his friends that they should forget the US because the future of Poland lies only in cooperation with the Soviet Union. "They have sold us once down the river, they will do it again" is his pet slogan about the US.

25X1

Jaszunski, Grzegorz is one of the most active Communist propagandists in Poland today. Most of his anti-US articles appear in Zwiaz Warszawy, signed by his full name, or the initials GJ.

Katz-Suchy, Juliusz, who since his return to Warsaw hates to be called Katz-Suchy, has dropped his family name Katz, and is making additional money by writing anti-US articles for the Communist press. He is also lecturing in Party schools and in the Ministry of Public Security. he gives lectures not only to Security Police officials but also to imprisoned Communists at the Warsaw Mokotow prison.

Klominiek, Andrzej has worked for the weekly "Przekroi" since 1946. He is considered a vicious and zealous hate-America campaigner.

Korotynski, Henryk is the editor-in-chief of Zycie Warszawy and chairman of the 25X1 Newspapermen's Union. Before he became editor-in-chief of Zycie Warszawy in 1951, he was the editor of "Wieczor" the afternoon edition of Zycie Warszawy. He spent about 10 months in Korea in 1951 as a correspondent, supplying the Communist press in Poland with the usual Communist lies about "American atrocities". One of the main actors in the hate-America campaign, Korotynski is rehashing his Korean correspondences over the radio and in public speeches. Korotynski, now about 50, was born in Warsaw and it is said that his father was a well-known Polish newspaperman at the beginning of the century. Korotynski who was in Buchenwald and Oswiecim camps during World War II, maintains that Germans in the concentration camps were more humane than Americans in Korea. No other Polish Communist has made such a statement so far.

Kowalewski, Jerzy, the deputy chief of the Central Committee Press Office, is a Moscow-trained Communist. He is responsible for the foreign section of the Press Office. Kowalewski often attacks Americans in the Party's Warsaw and provincial organs. During the trips of high ranking Communists, abroad, Kowalewski usually travels along as official correspondent.

Litauer, Stefan is the only Warsaw propagandist and radio commentator who had been a newspaperman of some status before World War II and is probably the most intelligent of all the Warsaw radio commentators.

Osmenczyk, Edmund is top man in the Communist campaign against the US. He does it voluntarily, and without any pressure, for material gains.

Podolaki, Henryk is the former editor of the Detroit Glos Ludowy. Deported from the US in 1951 he joined the hate-America campaign immediately after his return to Poland. He specializes in slanderous attacks on the US congress and US labor leaders, together with his friend Boleslaw Gebart, who departed from the US voluntarily.

Pracki, Leon has been another Warsaw war correspondent in Korea for the papers published by the Ministry of National Defense.

25X1

He also has been devoting most of his attention to "American crimes" in Korea.

25X1

Praga, Rafal is editor-in-chief of the Warsaw Express Wieczorny (Night Express). 25X1
Praga is a renegade Socialist. Prior to World War II, he was a young newspaperman in Lodz and a Socialist worker in youth organizations. 25X1

Prutkowski, Jozef considers himself a poet, satirist and a writer.

He started his "writing" career in the summer of 1945, after he had been demobilized from Zymierski's army. He began his career as a sports writer for the Katowice weekly "Sport". Later on he turned to poetry and literature. He specializes in writing "satires" and "poems" about President Truman and other US personalities.

Sadowski, Roman is one of the writers working for "Wave 49" on the Warsaw Radio.

25X1

Slonimski, Antoni is one of the newest additions to the hate-America campaign in Poland, but he has already received a high order for his zeal in this field.

25X1

Szymanowski, Antoni the expelled former director of the Warsaw information office in New York has also jumped on the Communist anti-US wagon.

25X1

Tarn, Adam is probably the man who has contributed more to the hate-America campaign than any other writer, or newspaperman in Poland. His play "Zwykła Sprawa" has been shown behind the Iron Curtain from East Berlin to Peking, and the Party in Poland is encouraging Party activists to show it in village amateur theatres.

Turewicz, Wladyslaw is a beginner in the hate-America campaign and works for the weekly "Przekrocie" and some other smaller magazines. He uses clippings from the New York and London Daily Workers for his anti-US writings.

Warcal, Edda, co-editor of "Zycie Warszawy"

Wiernik, Bronislaw has been for some time a correspondent for "Trybuna Ludu" from Korea and Vietnam. He returned in 1951 to Poland and wrote the dialogues and comments for the "documentary" picture "And Go Home". The picture has been made from old newsreels.

Wojcicki, Boleslaw who has several other names, is another co-editor of the "Zycie Warszawy". Author of the recent book "The Truth about Katyn", he fills "Zycie Warszawy" with anti-US invectives every day, sometimes on every page of the paper.
